

Somerville Chamber for Immediate Release

Winter Hill Bank January 23, 2012 Page 1 of 2
Contact Frank Bellistri - 978-474-4633 fbellistri@frank4.com

George F. McLean has been named to the Board of Directors at Winter Hill Bank. The announcement was recently made at the bank's annual meeting by Sandra L. McGoldrick, President and CEO. Mr. McLean served as the Police Chief of the Somerville Police Department from 2001 to 2005, and is currently an independent public safety professional.

According to Mrs. McGoldrick, "We are proud to have George Mclean join our board. He has a long and proud record of public service to Somerville that is consistent with the bank's commitment to being an active member of the community. His lifelong dedication to the City of Somerville and its citizens will make a meaningful contribution to our team and to the customers we serve."

McLean is currently a Trustee at The Somerville Home, a member of the George Dilboy VFW Post 529, a member of Post #19 American Legion, and a current board member of the Somerville Kiwanis Club.

He is also a founding member of both the Cambridge Somerville Vietnam Era Veterans and the Massachusetts Major City Chiefs Association. He is a past president of the Somerville Kiwanis Club and the Somerville Police Superior Officer's Association. McLean has also served on the boards of Somerville Mental Health and CASPAR; as well as a member of Somerville Community Action Television, the Somerville Relief Association, and the Northeast Massachusetts Law Enforcement Council.

Continued...

A former United States Marine and Vietnam veteran, Mr. McLean holds a Master of Science degree in public affairs and has received specialized training at Harvard Law School, Babson College, and the FBI National Academy at Quantico, VA. He lives in North Reading with his wife, Pamela.

Winter Hill Bank is a Mutual Federal Savings Bank serving the community since 1906 with offices in Somerville and North Reading.

- end -