

SANDRA L. MCGOLDRICK TO CHAIR PENTEGRA BOARD OF DIRECTORS

White Plains, New York, February, 2010

Sandra McGoldrick had been named Chair of the Pentegra Defined Contribution Plan for Financial Institutions Board of Directors, announced Robert C. Albanese, Pentegra Retirement Services President and CEO.

In making the announcement, Mr. Albanese said, "Ms. McGoldrick's background in banking, previous experience in serving on our Board and position as President & CEO of Winter Hill Bank of Somerville made her an ideal choice to Chair the Board. Ms. McGoldrick will also serve on the Pentegra Services, Inc. Board of Directors.

Ms. McGoldrick is President & CEO of Winter Hill Bank of Somerville, MA, a full service community bank serving communities throughout Eastern Massachusetts. Winter Hill Bank is a mutual federal savings bank with its main office in Somerville, Massachusetts. Established in 1906, the bank grew to prominence as a neighborhood savings bank concentrating on traditional lines of business, including residential mortgages and consumer deposits. Today, with five convenient locations, Winter Hill Bank is respected throughout Eastern Massachusetts as a full service bank that has remained true to its community roots.

Pentegra Retirement Services is a leading provider of retirement products and services to financial institutions nationwide. Founded by the Federal Home Loan Bank System in 1943, Pentegra offers a full range of retirement programs, including 401(k) plans, defined benefit pension plans, ESOPs, KSOPs, profit sharing plans, executive benefit and director plans, and full-service private label retirement programs. Pentegra recently expanded its operations with the acquisition of Retirement System Group in 2008, adding both scale and a broader array of retirement products and services.
